2013 Scotties Tournament of Hearts
Kingston, Ontario

Scotties Announces Host Committee Directors

The Scotties Tournament of Hearts – Canada’s national women’s curling championship – coming to Kingston’s K-Rock Centre February 16-24, 2013 today announced the key members of the Host Committee.

Ken Thompson will serve as the Host Committee Chair with the support of Brian Ward, Vice Chair – Facilities, Larke Zarichny, Vice Chair – Hosting and Janice Ray, Vice Chair – Special Events.

“I’m truly honoured to take on this position for such a prestigious event,” commented Thompson, “and excited to have Brian, Larke and Janice join me in the challenge to host the best Scotties ever. We look forward to the involvement of the entire community in the months ahead.”

Tickets for the Scotties will go on sale in February, as well as the call for volunteers. Further announcements will be carried in the local media and online at curling.ca
