K-ROCK CENTRE NOMINATED FOR 2ND YEAR AS MAJOR VENUE OF THE YEAR!

Kingston, ON – Kingston’s own K-Rock Centre was once again, nominated for the “2010 Major Facility of the Year (under 8000 capacity) Award” after winning in 2009. This recognition by the Canadian Music & Broadcast Industry is a welcome surprise to the Management and Staff of the facility, days after celebrating its second anniversary.

The Gala Awards Ceremony and Banquet will be held in Toronto on Thursday, March 11th 2010.

“We are incredibly honored to be selected with the other buildings across Canada also nominated for this national award.” says Ken Noakes, General Manager of the K-Rock Centre

“This is a true reflection of the invaluable partnership we have in promoters such as; Live Nation, AEG Live, Jeff Parry Productions, Paul Merc Concerts and Don Jones Productions to name but a few. Along with the incredibly supportive fans we have in Kingston and the wider Eastern Ontario community. A huge thank you to each of you, after winning this category in 2009, the K-Rock Centre is thrilled to once again be recognized for our support of Canadian music and by our peers.”

The nominees and winners of the Canadian Music Industry Awards are chosen by its combined votes of registered Canadian music industry professionals. These registered voters consist of peers within the industry. For more information on the CMIA visit www.cmw.net.
